

TABLEAUX PLANS FOR XMAS FETE

Mrs. Clara D. Neligh's Report Outlines an Elaborate Program.

Every Phase of Christmas Observance the World Over Would Be Shown, with Many Dances.

Every phase of the Christmas celebration in every country of the globe will be visualized in Washington at the community Christmas celebration this year, according to the plan evolved by Mrs. Clara D. Neligh, of Neighborhood House, chairman of the committee on folk dances.

Mrs. Neligh's report is a description of a program of dances and tableaux that would present the Christmas conceptions of the different nations and the relation of the Christmas idea to the home and the church. The program would consume about three-quarters of an hour.

While this plan is elaborate in its details, it would not require a great deal of money to produce. Mrs. Neligh made a report of her plan to Cuno H. Rudolph, chairman of the executive committee, last night, and he expressed his approval of it, but before it is adopted it will have to be laid before the chairman of a couple of the other subcommittees so that it may be assured it does not conflict with any preparations they may have made.

The general plan of Mrs. Neligh is in three grand divisions, the first dealing with the relation of the Christmas thought to religion, the second with its relation to the different countries, and the third, to the home.

The program would consist very largely of tableaux and much of the first part is planned to be in connection with the musical program. That is, the religious tableaux would be enacted while the chorus of 1,000 or more voices was singing the hymns, and would in a sense be illustrative of the hymns. Four tableaux are planned in this division.

In the second part Christmas customs of all the nations, as nearly as possible, will be shown. In the third division will be the tableaux depicting the Christmas idea in the home, as it affects babyhood, childhood, middle and old age.

Hotel Proprietor Asks Jury Trial.

A jury trial was demanded by Col. George P. Schutt, proprietor of the New Exhibit House, yesterday afternoon in the Police Court yesterday before Judge Mulwain on a charge of selling liquor to a minor. Bond of $50 was fixed. Through his attorney, William H. Ward, Col. Schutt entered a plea of "not guilty" to the charge. It was alleged by the police that on the night of November 15, Ross H. Davis, a minor, was served at the New Exhibit bar.

Stork and Cupid Cunnning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten It.

There is some dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth. But thanks to a remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, the period is one of joyful anticipation.

Mother's Friend is a penetrating, external application. It makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen pliant so they expand easily and naturally without pain, and with none of that peculiar nausea, nervousness and other symptoms that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are rated as cunning plotters to lead the coming of a little sunbeam to brighten the hearth and home.

Thousands of women know from experience Mother's Friend is one of our greatest contributions to happy motherhood. Sold at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. Especially recommended as a preventive of calving bruis.

Write to Bradford Regulator Co., 231 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable book to expectant mothers.

DELIGHTFUL TABLEAUX IN CHARITY'S BEHALF

Capital's Prettiest Girls Participate in Entertainment Given for Benefit of House of Mercy.

FIGURES REPEATED TODAY

Could the old masters, whose art was portrayed in tableaux by scores of Washington's prettiest girls at the Columbia Theatre yesterday, have been witnesses to their masterpieces staged life-like, they would have felt a new joy of their achievement.

The "Angels of Art" tableaux given for the benefit of the House of Mercy and scheduled for repetition at the F street playhouse to-day are one of the most delightful entertainments given for charity in this city.

One of the most entrancing of the tableaux was that of "Angels Singing Praises," in which Miss Edith Temple Gracie, Miss Frances Noyes, Miss Mary McConley, Miss De Jena, the Misses Hume, Miss Pauline Kinsinger, Miss Dorothy Ashbridge, Miss Edmonia Adams, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Alice Brice, Miss Phyllis and Faith Snyder, Miss Mildred Brown, and Miss Esther Poole participated.

There were sixteen tableaux presented, each representing the masterpiece of some famous painter. The tableaux were given under the direction of Frauline Spielberg, according to the idea of the management of the presentation was under Mrs. Henry Wood, and was accomplished with exquisite effect.

Henry H. Freeman, organist of St. John's Church, acted as musical director, and during the tableaux the entire choir of St. John's sang appropriate selections. The prologue of the artistic entertainment was given by Countess Marie von Wedell, of Germany.

Mrs. Julian James, president of the board of managers of the House of Mercy, was in charge of the affair.

Those who took part in the various tableaux were: Miss Francis Hopkins, Miss Zilla McDougall, Miss Helen Wedburn, Miss Gertrude Greeley, Miss Cecelia Robb, Miss Helen Palmer Freeman, Miss Rebekah Wilmer, Miss Mary Olsen, Miss Henrietta Fitch, Miss Alice Goodwin, Miss Alice Mann, Miss Dorothy Anderson, Miss Claudia Reed, Mrs. Fay, Miss Gertrude Gordon, Miss Dora Chastler, corresponding secretary, Miss L. M. Limoges. Members of the board: Mrs. S. W. Bartlett, Mrs. Charles R. Shepard, and Mrs. Ch. V. Boynton.

FRENCH LECTURES PLANNED.

First of Series at Cosmos Club on December 4.

The Alliance Francaise will begin its series of French lectures December 4 at the Cosmos Club. The first lecture will be delivered by Monsieur Paul Vitry, of Paris. His subject will be on the Louvre and the Curious, with stereoscopic views.

The officers for the season are: President, Hon. Henry White; vice president, Mr. John B. Henderson; treasurer, Mr. Francis H. Wood; secretary, Mr. Thomas M. Chastler; corresponding secretary, Miss L. M. Limoges. Members of the board: Mrs. S. W. Bartlett, Mrs. Charles R. Shepard, and Mrs. Ch. V. Boynton.

MORE MARINES WANTED.

Commandant Says Force of Officers and Men Needs Increase.

Increase of the officers and enlisted personnel of the Marine Corps is recommended in the annual report of the commandant, Maj. Gen. W. P. Biddle, made public yesterday.

The present force is not large enough, he says, for the Marine Corps to take part in the expeditions to the Latin countries, and at the same time properly guard the naval shore stations.

His recommendation is that the enlisted personnel be increased by 279 men at once, and he urges an allowance of one officer to each twenty men, instead of one officer to each thirty-four men, as at present.

FORGERS TO BE PROSECUTED.

Hotel Men Plan Campaign Against Bad Check Passers.

Hotel thieves are to be watched closely by Washington hotel men and prosecution of forgers is to be pushed, following a meeting of the Washington Hotel Men's Association at the New Willard. Officers of the American Hotel Protective Association, who met here recently, suggested a campaign against check forgers, and the Washington hotel men appointed Clifford M. Lewis, R. L. Downs, and T. A. McKee to determine the policy to be pursued.

Officers of the Washington association, elected at the meeting are P. S. Right, president; E. L. Weston, vice president; T. A. McKee, secretary-treasurer, and in addition to the hotel men, Mrs. E. F. Schmitt and H. T. Wheeler, members of the executive committee. Besides the officers, members of the legislative committee are Mrs. S. H. Mander, L. O. Ball, and R. L. Downs.

CITIZENS TO HEAR SUFFRAGIST.

Northwest Association Also Indorses Allan Davis to Head Schools.

An invitation by a Washington woman suffragist to address them at a future meeting was accepted last night by members of the Northwest Citizens' Association, at a meeting at 214 Pennsylvania avenue southeast. Allan Davis, principal of Business High School, was endorsed to be superintendent of schools.

A resolution was passed in support of a building for the Juvenile Court. Election of officers resulted in the selection of the following: A. G. Herrman, president; H. C. Emrich, first vice president; J. G. Minsberg, second vice president; H. T. Wheeler, third vice president; E. H. Brooks, secretary, and R. H. Baeby, treasurer.

PUNCHER TURNS PREACHER.

Former Pennsylvania Prisoner-Turns New Occupies Pulpit.

Killingham, Pa., Nov. 25.—From puglist to preacher in one year was the story made by Mark Beer, of Wickbore, who preached his first sermon in the Brethren in Christ Church in Wickbore Sunday.

A year ago Beer was an amateur boxer. He was successful, and finally lost to another man in a bout and was beaten decisively. Disheartened, he wandered about the streets until he visited a mission meeting.

Beer was converted. He returned home and began studying for the ministry.

AVIATOR SAVES SIX.

Air Pilot Fixes Broken Part and Lands Passengers Safely.

Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—Narrowly avoiding being wrecked in an orange grove, Roy Knabenshue's monoplane dirigible landed safely in the Santa Anita field, completed a successful trip with five passengers over Los Angeles and Pasadena, landed in the Arroyo Seco.

While 100 feet in the air and circling around the aerodrome preparing to land, a water pipe burst and the propeller stopped. Knabenshue regained control by climbing to the prop and he and passengers were safely landed.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.

Washington, Tuesday, November 25.—A rough of moderately low pressure extending from the Central Plains State through the Upper Lake region into the Saint Lawrence Valley has caused some light local rains in the Central Valley and the Upper Lake region, recently tried at Manila in the Southwest and locally west of the Rocky Mountains, while in the East and South the weather was generally fair.

It is colder in the Atlantic States. The weather will be unsettled probably on Thursday in the Middle Atlantic States.

It will be somewhat colder Wednesday in the Lake region and the Upper Mississippi Valley, but over the remainder of the country temperature changes will not be of great importance.

The winds on the Middle Atlantic Coast moderate and northeast.

SEARCH FOR ZELAYA UNSUCCESSFUL SO FAR

Former President Has Not Been Seen Since He Learned Nicaragua Wanted Him Extradited.

The search for Jose Santos Zelaya, former dictator of Nicaragua, whom the government of that country is endeavoring to have extradited on charges of murder, has been unsuccessful, according to information to the Washington authorities yesterday. Officers of the Department of Justice are in New York endeavoring to serve on the Nicaraguan ex-president the warrant of extradition.

It was learned yesterday that Zelaya learned last Saturday night that the Nicaraguan government had asked for his extradition from the United States. He has not been seen since. He called on the long distance telephone, a Washington lawyer, and informed him that extradition was to be attempted, and instructed him to fight the proceeding before the State Department. He then disappeared, and his Washington attorney, Corry M. Stadden, admitted yesterday that he did not know where his client was. He called at the State Department to serve notice that he would oppose extradition, and was granted permission to file an argument in case Zelaya is apprehended.

In many quarters it is believed Zelaya has left the country. There would be
